

Paul has served as President & CEO of the Tulare County EDC since 2001. He served on the Board of Directors of the California Association for Local Economic Development, including a term as Chairman and served on the Board for the American Economic Development Council. A Certified Economic Developer (CECd) since 1993, he has served as an Instructor for CETYS University Economic Development Program in Mexico since 2004 and previously for the University of Oklahoma Economic Development Institute. The recipient of 18 national and state economic development awards, Paul has achieved designation as an Accredited Economic Development Organization in two different organizations he has managed. Paul also serves as a member of the Board of the California Enterprise Development Authority, Board of Regents for the California Academy for Economic Development and served three terms as Chairman of the Central California EDC.

Paul was appointed by Governor Schwarzenegger to the Partnership for the San Joaquin Valley, serves on the Advisory Board for Southern California Gas Company and is on the Tulare County Workforce Investment Board. Paul is active in Valley Bible Fellowship and serves on the School Site Council for Exeter High School, where he lives with his sons Lauren and Sage.