

Community of DINUBA

For over a century, Dinuba has maintained a forward thinking attitude and strives to positively impact the economic vitality and quality of life in the region. Dinuba's government, community groups, and businesses work tirelessly to support the growth and prosperity of this great city. Dinuba continues to encourage and promote a positive, balanced, vital economy and preserve those unique qualities that are good for business and make Dinuba a special place to live, work, and play.

Located in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley, Dinuba establishes itself as a centralized "hub" of California. With arterial access to Highway 99 and 198, Dinuba is an ideal location for travel, tourism, shipping and transport. Dinuba's trade area population rivals that of many larger Cities and its steady growth provides a solid foundation for new and existing businesses.

Over the past ten years, Dinuba has shown steady growth through the current economic downturn. The City recently expanded its waste-water treatment facility to accommodate future growth. With an expanding infrastructure and business friendly attitude, Dinuba provides the perfect setting for any industry.

Dinuba is proud of its strong agricultural community. It has a diverse population employed by a wide range of local industries including farming, manufacturing, and distribution. Local colleges and vocational training programs help Dinuba maintain a strong employment base.
